

Meet Jon

Jon Slattery BVSc CertSAM DipCABT MRCVS LVI

Jon graduated from the University of Liverpool in 1994 with a Bachelor of Veterinary Science and worked extensively throughout the UK before moving to London in 1997.

In 2005, after a further three years study, Jon achieved RCVS board certification in small animal internal medicine.

Jon also has a Diploma in Companion Animal Behaviour and Therapy and is a government approved Local Veterinary Inspector.

After working for many years in a large companion animal hospital, Jon returned to his native Worcestershire in 2007 and set up Best Friends Veterinary Surgery.

Jon lives with his partner and young family in Leigh alongside a menagerie of dogs, cats and tortoises. In his free time Jon enjoys playing squash, spending time with his two young children and dog walking in the beautiful Worcestershire countryside.

Welcome to Best Friends Veterinary Surgery

At Best Friends Veterinary Surgery we are all pet owners ourselves. We understand that as well as being a member of the family, your pet is likely to be your best friend.

Our primary goal is to keep your pet healthy and in tip top condition through sound advice and good practice.

We've created the Best Friends Pet Health Club to help you budget for the regular treatment your pet needs to stay happy and healthy.
